Is anything more miraculous than the birth of a child? You hold that newborn babe in your arms and count his fingers and toes. You look into his eyes that are so beautiful and blue. You touch his soft skin and cuddle his warm body to yours. And you are in awe. This amazing being was, just a few moments ago, living inside his mother's womb, and he is now here in your arms. And he's perfect. Of course he's perfect. He's exactly how God made him to be. God made those tiny toes and those little hands and that sweet little mouth. God made him, wonderfully.

The Bible says in Psalm 139:14, "I am wonderfully made." That wonder is so easy to see in a newborn. Somehow though, we lose sight of that wonder as we grow older. As we grow older and more burdened with life, we forget that God made us, wonderfully. We forget that the almighty creator of the universe took the time to create us. We were made by God. You were made by God. Your precious child was made by God. Don't let him forget. Remind him daily that God made him. Tell him each morning that he is wonderful, and God made him that way.

Hey Mom and Dad, do you believe that YOU are wonderfully made? Well, according to the Bible, you are. God made you and He loves everything about you. God made you, therefore, you are wonderful. It's not about us. It's about HIM. Take a dry erase marker and write Psalm 139:14 on your bathroom mirror. Say this verse daily for you are indeed wonderfully made.
